Conversational Urdu

Raising bilingual children is a challenging but extremely rewarding pursuit. Research has shown that bilingual children have more creative brains than those who know one language and are better at problem solving. Teaching children a native language is a wonderful way to keep them connected to their cultural heritage. The benefits of bilingualism are well-established. So, let's get started on how to teach Urdu to kids. Learning conversational Urdu will be a fun and interactive class where kids will build on or reinforce basic ways to communicate in Urdu through stories, songs, and games.

INSTRUCTOR: Aisha Karachiwalla and Heena Ali

Crazy 8's Math Club (KG-2nd)

Crazy 8s is a new, recreational after-school math club that gets kids fired up about math. They'll enjoy the math behind their favorite activities! We're nothing like your usual math club. Every week Crazy 8ers will build glow-in-the-dark structures, crack secret spy codes and play games like Toilet Paper Olympics. They'll run and jump, make music, make a mess... all while bonding with new friends over math.

**If the minimum limit is not reached, class will be cancelled.*
